

Brimberry convicted of hiding assets, lying

THOMAS BRIMBERRY

By PAT HAY LUTZ
for the Press-Record

After listening to 90 to 95 pages of jury instruction and deliberating for five and one-half hours, a jury of nine men and three women found Thomas Brimberry guilty of seven counts of the 10-count indictment against him.

Brimberry, who has been ill during most of the four-week trial, sat impassive and expressionless as the verdict was read, while Defense Attorney David Lubell did little to hide his disgust at the conviction, shaking his head and mumbling aloud, "I don't believe it. I just don't believe it."

BRIMBERRY was acquitted on charges that he made false statements during a sworn statement to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) about two brokerage accounts in Las Vegas that were set up by Jerry Maeras and financed by Brimberry, that he lied to a federal grand jury about splitting money obtained from a fictitious Stix and Co. brokerage account with his brother-in-law, Arthur Miller Jr., and that he lied about Duane Skinner's knowledge of his embezzlement scheme at Stix.

The jury found Brimberry guilty of lying to the grand jury when he said that Duane Skinner, a former Pontoon Beach trustee, was not involved in any illegal activity (Skinner prepared income tax returns for the Brimberys at a time when he knew that they were spending millions of dollars but never reported an annual income of more than $82,000).

BRIMBERRY also was convicted of the following charges:

—Lying to the grand jury when he told them that Arthur Miller Jr. of Granite City had records of his fictitious Stix account after he reportedly told Miller to burn them.

—Lying when he denied loaning money to MGM Grand Hotel employees to buy stock.

—Lying when he implicated William Swanson, former head of the bond department of Stix, in a scheme to manipulate the firm, putting it in a financial bind and allowing Attorney James Massa of Collinsville to buy controlling interest in the company.

—Selling equipment from Miller Excavating in Granite City and using the money for his own benefit.

—Removing light fixtures, stained glass windows, and a $25,000 generator from his Granite City home to prevent the Stix trustee from learning of their existence.

LUBELL CONVEYED his disappointment to reporters, saying, "He (Brimberry) was convicted because he stole the money. They (the jury) didn't take enough time. They didn't go through the evidence."

Brimberry's other attorney, Larry Fleming, said he was "surprised" at the verdict because "the counts he was convicted on were not the strongest counts."

Jury members told reporters that Brimberry, who took the stand in his own behalf for the first time in this trial, "wasn't very convincing" as a witness, and they denied convicting him of the fraud.

"WE STUCK TO THE CHARGES," said Bernard Morgan, foreman of the jury. "There was a lot of discussion."

Brimberry faces up to 35 years imprisonment and $150,000 in fines when he is sentenced by U.S. District Court Judge Clyde Cahill on May 11.

Both Brimberry and his wife, Janice, refused to comment on the verdict.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Terry Adelman said that it is "very likely" that government officials will not prosecute Brimberry on the fraud he admittedly masterminded, even though authorities still contend that

Health care cost worries elderly

Long-term in-home and community-based health care was addressed at a Senate Special Committee on Aging hearing chaired by Sen. Charles Percy (R-Ill.) Friday morning at the Granite City Center of Belleville Area College.

More than 200 senior citizens and representatives of both providers of such care and state agencies, including the Southwestern Illinois Area Agency on Aging, attended the hearing and heard testimony given by various agencies on the home health care issue.

"I AM absolutely committed to helping maintain the elderly, the infirm and the terminally ill in their own homes for as long as possible through the intervention of timely health, social, and supportive services," Percy said.

"Nursing home care is extremely costly and is not always appropriate," he said. "It is time to look for other less-costly and more, appropriate ways to provide long-term care."

Long-term care encompasses a variety of services offered in an array of settings, which include nursing homes, adult day-care centers and the patient's own home. Services include part-time skilled nursing care, occupational, physical and speech therapy, social services and personal services depending on the patient's needs.

"COMMUNITY-BASED" long-term care should not be seen as an alternative to nursing home care, but rather, nursing home care should be seen as the last alternative to home care. This is not to demean nursing homes. However, there is evidence that 20 to 40 percent of the nursing home population could be

30 taxing bodies willing to negotiate $6 million interest

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

About $6 million in investment interest is at stake in the court ruling requiring counties to reimburse other taxing bodies, it was estimated here Thursday night at a meeting of representatives of 30 of the governments.

The group unanimously voiced its willingness to negotiate with Madison County Board officials, the state's attorney, the county treasurer's office or others on the amount of the repayment.

THE $6 MILLION figure covers the period back to 1971, when the present Illinois Constitution went into effect.

A $4 million estimate goes back to the 1978 date mentioned in a Pawnee, Ill., court decision.

The village of Pawnee sued Sages County, Madison County and 97 other Illinois counties were made class-action defendants in the case.

A ruling in a similar Wood Dale library district suit against DuPage County indicated that counties collectively may have to repay taxing districts a total of about $150 million in interest.

TAKING EXCEPTION to "windfall" comments made at Edwardsville were officials from cities, schools, townships and other local-level taxing agencies who met Thursday evening at the Granite City Center of Belleville Area College. "The word 'windfall' fails to take into account the financial burden placed on our governments for a number of years by counties that delayed forwarding property tax receipts to the agencies for which they were intended."

This was the feeling of Nameoki Township Collector Norman Hall, who chaired the meeting. Attorney Irvin Slate Jr. was present to explain legal ramifications.

A GENERAL MEETING is planned in late April or early May, with participation by nearly all of the 180 to 200 taxing districts in Madison County, Hall said.

At issue is many counties' practice of retaining collected real estate taxes and investing the money to benefit county treasuries.

Counties are a legitimate recipient of tax funds but they eventually qualify for only a slice of the total tax "pie."

GC park egg hunt Saturday

The Granite City Park District's annual Easter Egg Hunt this Saturday will have an added attraction—the Easter Bunny.

Children, as well as, parents who have never seen the Easter Bunny will have an opportunity to meet the cotton-tailed hopper at the Wilson Park ice rink, during the egg hunt.

The park will have approximately 2,500 colored plastic eggs hidden in straw on the floor of the ice rink for children to discover. Each egg will be filled with jelly beans.

The egg searches will be divided into three age groups. Prizes will be given in each category. Winners must be residents of the Granite City Park District.

All children must bring their own containers for the eggs they find during the hunt.

The times for the various groups will be: 9 a.m., first graders; 9:45 a.m., kindergarten children, and 10:30 a.m., preschoolers.

Harris leaving Board of Review

Robert Harris, chairman of the Madison County Board of Review, is not seeking reappointment to the three-member real estate assessment review panel.

He operates the Mid-States warehouse firm in St. Louis, and is believed to be considering running for assessor of Granite City Township in 1985 if Assessor Von Dee Cruise runs for mayor.

Harris, active previously in the real estate field, was appointed to the Board of Review June 1, 1978, and his current term ends May 31. He is a Democrat and his successor also must be a Democrat; a Republican, Fred Finck, and a Democrat, Mrs. Shirley Voegelé, are holdover members.

Appointees to the Board of Review are selected by Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer, subject to County Board approval.

Crash causes power outage

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
of the Press-Record

About 3,000 Granite City homes and business firms were without electrical power Sunday morning when a driver struck a guy wire attached to a power pole at Marshall Avenue and Victory Drive, snapping live electrical lines to the ground.

The accident pulled the guideline out of its anchored base, causing electrical wires to mesh together and interrupting a service carried through a 34,500 volt sub-transmission feeder line serving two Illinois Power substations, authorities explained.

Areas primarily affected by the outage are served through the Parkview and Wabash substations and lie in the southeast part of town.

Mitchell woman wins lottery

After winning smaller prizes in the Illinois State Lottery with four of the six numbers on other occasions, Mrs. Deloris Ploch of the 300 block of Springfield Drive in Mitchell finally hit the big one Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ploch matched all six numbers in the state Lotto game to qualify for part of the $5 million grand prize. There were seven winners in the state, however, so each will receive $279,492. That is one seventh of what would have been invested in an interest-bearing account had there been only one winner. With interest, the investment would have totaled $5 million in 20 years.

MRS. PLOCH purchased her winning ticket at Reese Drug Store in Belleville Village Shopping Center. The winning numbers were 8, 16, 20, 27, 31 and 38. The win was the fourth Lotto win on tickets sold by Reese stores, two at the Madison store and now two at Belleville.

Mrs. Ploch was unavailable for comment.

Makeup of Press-Record best in Southern Illinois

The Granite City Press-Record was selected as the best large weekly newspaper in Southern Illinois for its overall makeup during the 88th Southern Illinois Editorial Association's 1984 Better Newspaper Contest awards luncheon Friday.

The awards were announced during the annual event at Giant City State Park south of Carbondale Friday afternoon. Press-Record Editor Gary R. Schneider accepted the awards for the newspaper.

THE Press-Record received a total of six awards in the contest, including third in general excellence among the numerous large weeklies with circulations exceeding 3,200 from the southern two-thirds of the state. The Fairbury Blade was first, followed by the Collinsville Herald. The Herald and Press-Record are Post Corporation newspapers.

Also among the large weeklies, the Press-Record placed second in advertising excellence and received first honorable mentions for its

News notes

Stephan M. Kernan, chosen in a controversial selection to hear matters related to special prosecution of Madison County assessment decisions, is being urged by many (including State's Attorney Don Wetzel) to step aside. Kernan has issued a gag order on all involved in the case.

Wilton Steel, formerly a division of National Steel, was profitable in the first quarter of 1984.

A tentative assessment multiplier of 1.149 has been issued by the state to Madison County, which will set township multipliers to avoid a county multiplier.

PEDESTRIAN STRUCK

Randy Beedle, 28, of Collinsville, was injured, but not seriously, when struck by a car while walking across Niedringhaus Avenue from St. Elizabeth Medical Center last week. A witness told police the auto was traveling east on Niedringhaus and went through a traffic light before leaving the scene.

No public comment at GC Township meeting

By GEORGEANN MCGEE

The annual Granite City Township meeting, which allows registered voters an equal vote and footing in township matters, attracted few impartial participants and no public comment last week.

About 48 attended the short meeting conducted at the Granite City Township building, 2060 Delmar Ave. Most of the participants were city or township officials or employees of the township.

A few older residents were present to hear a resolution approving a portion of the township's federal revenue-sharing funds for senior citizens. A certain amount of those funds are traditionally earmarked for seniors at the township meeting.

Sixth Ward Alderman Stephen Saltich was already seated at the main table prior to his being elected moderator for the evening. Richard H. Schneider, Democratic Precinct 14, and Donald E. Gray Sr., Democratic Precinct 13 committee-man and part-time city inspector, also were seated at the main table. The two read annual resolutions approving the use of federal funds for seniors and asked that a certified public accountant be hired for the town audit.

William Schooley, township attorney, briefly discussed the supervisor's annual report for the fiscal year, which extended from March 1, 1983, to Feb. 29, 1984. The aldermen, who also serve on the township board due to the similar boundaries of the city and township, had met last week to approve the report.

The township spent $376,223 to support its administrative staff, assessor's and tax collector's offices, building expenses and to pay its board of auditors. An additional $303,209 was used for general assistance with about $80,000 going for employee salaries and $216,392 to pay for the food, rent, utility and medical bills paid by the assistance program.

Other federal revenue-sharing expenses included: $30,000 for salaries of van drivers, aides for the senior programs and other employees; $11,000 for van expenses; $6,000 for building expenses, and $2,341 for senior supplies.

The township managed to finish the year in the black with $209,024 in the town fund, $23,042 in the general assistance fund and $76,929 in federal revenue-sharing funds. Schooley said the township will use a portion of the savings to construct a garage for township vans to be located in the parking lot cater-corner from the township building. The project originally was scheduled for last year.

When the aldermen met last week to discuss the report, Township Supervisor Nelson "Nellie" Hagnauer, who also serves as chairman of the Madison County Board, said replacement tax funds were mainly responsible for the township savings.

Aldermen had few questions on the annual report for Hagnauer, who normally does not attend the township meetings conducted twice a month briefly before Granite City Council meeting. Aldermen infrequently discuss township business in detail at the regular township meetings.

Aldermen did request the township study raising the $10 salary paid aldermen for each township meeting. First Ward Alderman Casmer Skubish also asked Hagnauer and Schooley about the persistent request of Juanita Crawley, president of the Granite City Council of Seniors, for funds to be used for bus trips and refreshments for seniors.

Schooley said there could be a legal problem with giving township funds to private groups, but said he would investigate the situation and present alternatives to the aldermen, prior to preparing the 1984-85 township budget.

Local Vietnam Veterans needed to answer survey

The Agent Orange Study Commission of Illinois is attempting to accumulate medical information from local Vietnam veterans. Questionnaires are available at the American Legion Venice-Madison Post 307 located at 740 Broadway, Venice.

The commission will compile the data submitted by the Vietnam veterans and compare it to health statistics of the non-Vietnam veteran population. The findings will be forwarded to the federal government for use in Agent-Orange research.

Names and addresses of those responding will be used by the commission and the Illinois Department of Veterans Affairs to create the Illinois Vietnam Registry. This will aid the state in forwarding new information regarding the effects of Agent Orange to veterans.

"Vietnam veterans are urged to pick up a questionnaire, fill it in, and return it to the address given on the questionnaire," according to a Legion spokesman.

ALCOHOL-RELATED CHARGE

After an officer alleged seeing a vehicle strike the median on Nameoki Road last week, he halted the driver, Candy M. Dorch, 29, of Collinsville, on West Pontoon Road at Braden Avenue, and charged her with illegal transportation of alcohol. She was released to appear May 4.

GC seeking to run Head Start

The Granite City Board of Education has just authorized the administration to propose School District Nine as the operator of Head Start in Madison County in 1984-85.

The federally funded classes for four-year-olds were run by the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission until this winter, when MCEOC fiscal practices came under scrutiny. SUE then took over Head Start but does not wish to continue being the overseer.

Lewis and Clark College, the Urban League and the Visiting Nurses also have voiced some interest in administering Head Start.

There is a network of Head Start centers throughout the County.

Collinsville women enter innocent plea

In an appearance in the Granite City court last week, Tammy M. Coons, 18, and Judy M. Branhan, 17, both of Collinsville, pleaded innocent to charges of theft of services. Miss Branhan also was charged with failure to display a vehicle registration.

The charges resulted from an incident late the previous night when an employee of Sonic Service Station, 4817 Madison Ave., alleged to police the occupants of a vehicle obtained $17 worth of gasoline, left the gas nozzle laying on the ground and drove off without paying.

A description was given and Miss Branhan's auto was stopped at 27th Street and Grand Avenue. Both women were released on their own recognizance.

ALLEGES YOUTH HAS CANNABIS CIGARETTES

Officers arrested William L. Sewell, 17, of 2826 E. 23th St., when he entered school property at the rear of Granite City High School last week.

Sewell, who is not a student at the school, was charged with criminal trespass to property. In a search, 14 cannabis cigarettes allegedly were found in the youth's jacket pocket.

He was additionally charged with unlawful possession of cannabis and released after posting a $104 cash bond.

Brimberry has "squirrelled away" at least some of the $2.8 million still unaccounted for.

DURING CLOSING arguments on Thursday, Assistant U.S. Attorney Ronald Kane told jurors that Brimberry had planned two schemes—one to steal the $16 million from Stix and one to break his Nov. 2, 1981, plea agreement with the government by "holding onto whatever he could."

"He lied to the grand jury, and he continued his lie right into this courtroom," Kane said.

As he had done through much of the proceedings, Brimberry slept as Kane argued that Brimberry "knew his statements were false at the time he testified before the grand jury."

"THE DOCUMENTS DON'T LIE." Kane said. "The documents make Tom Brimberry out for what he is—a liar."

Defense Attorney Fleming contended that Brimberry never lied after he made a pact with the government under which he would plead guilty to filing a false income tax return in exchange for his complete and honest cooperation by outlining the embezzlement scheme.

"The Stix fraud is not what Tom Brimberry is charged with," Fleming said. "The hundreds of lies told before his deal is not an issue in this case. The millions of dollars Tom Brimberry gambled and squandered is not an issue."

FLEMING ARGUED that Brimberry had "turned over truckloads of records and documents" to authorities after his agreement, and "the government used Tom Brimberry like a whore."

"They used him like a whore and were embarrassed," he said. Brimberry told authorities that he was selling equipment from Miller Excavating and was never told that he should stop.

"The government never told him not to sell the equipment, and Tom just goes on his happy way," Fleming contended. "They decide to indict him eight months later. Is it fair? It's preposterous. Why are they behaving that way?"

CITING WHAT he termed "the three most often told lies," Fleming said, "I'll still respect you in the morning," and "I'm from the government and I'm here to help you." Fleming said, "I'll admit it was a dam good deal. The government is embarrassed. Their whore Tom Brimberry embarrassed them."

"The bottom line is—you (the jury) are the protection against the government overreacting," Fleming added.

Contending that Brimberry was "targeted, set up, and framed" on the charges, Defense Attorney Lubell told jurors, "I'm going to prove to you that this is a frame-up before I stop."

HE CALLED the evidential presentations by the government "dog and pony shows," telling jurors that evidence given to the government by Brimberry had been turned against him.

"Doesn't that make you outraged? Would you want that to happen to somebody you loved?" he questioned.

"We're paying the government to prosecute this kind of nonsense," Lubell charged. "If you can't come out of that jury room smoking... that this is a frame-up, then maybe I'm not expressing myself clearly."

COMMENTING on the demeanor of key witnesses for the government, Arthur Miller Jr. and Jerry Maeras, Lubell said, "Artie and Jerry Maeras, that tower of respectability, were shaking him down for dough" (the Brimberys said that Miller and Maeras blackmailed them).

Assistant U.S. Attorney Terry Adelman accused Brimberry of "making up" testimony to cover for ignoring his plea agreement, saying, "Everyone is telling the truth except Tom Brimberry."

Calling Brimberry a "joker," Adelman argued that Brimberry lied to authorities about his living expenses after the agreement when he told them he was living "a bare existence" and that he was "broke."

"SHEER GREED—that's what this case is all about," Adelman said. "Tom Brimberry is operating on the premise 'I stole this money, fair and square, and by God, it's mine!'"

Responding to the defense that Brimberry was framed, Adelman said, "We didn't frame him, he framed himself. To live up to the bargain, he'd have to give up being greedy. It's not in his nature."

"The truth is consistent, lies aren't. He lied to get his deal. He lied to keep his deal. He lied to the SEC, the grand jury, and up here on the witness stand. It's time for Tom Brimberry to pay his dues and not with somebody else's money," Adelman admonished.

THE VERDICT ended the four-week-long trial, and both defense attorneys indicated that they would appeal the decision, with Lubell saying, "There is mischief here."

Carl Mathias, Illinois Power service area manager, said today.

Power loss mainly was experienced in residences and businesses located east of Nankin Road, up to and along Johnson Road and extended to points as far east as Wilshire Drive.

Several hundred telephone inquiries concerning the loss of service were handled by the Granite City police dispatcher and watch commander, especially during the first 90 minutes of the outage. Meanwhile police headquarters itself was functioning on an emergency generator backup system.

Power was restored to 2,000 customers in approximately 90 minutes and the remaining 1,000 homes were reconnected in about two hours, Mathias said.

The accident occurred at 9:15 a.m. Sunday when Charles L. Pickens, 17, of 2429 Wilson Ave., apparently lost control of the 1980 auto he was driving, after turning north from Victory Drive onto Marshall Avenue.

According to reports, the youth's car struck the guidewire attached to the power pole and the driver left the scene. The roadway was wet at the time.

Pickens later returned with a parent to make a police report and was charged with leaving the scene of an accident with property damage and driving too fast for conditions. He sustained a minor injury and was released to appear in court May 18.

In addition to the loss of power at individual homes and businesses, reports noted that lift stations quit operating in several areas and traffic signal lights also stopped functioning.

Granite City Street Department and Illinois Department of Transportation employees placed stop signs at several intersections to replace malfunctioning electric signals.

Pin removed from daughter's throat; mother suspects it came from bread

A Pontoon Beach woman had a long metal pin surgically removed from her throat Saturday, after she sought medical help when an object became lodged in her throat while eating breakfast.

According to a St. Elizabeth Medical Center spokesman, Kathy Bitzer, 29, of 3801 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach, is in stable condition today. A spokesman said the Pontoon Beach woman was initially diagnosed as having a metallic pin in her throat.

The woman's mother, Rose Kelley, who shares a mobile home in Pontoon Beach with her daughter, suspects the pin might have come from a loaf of bread, although the source of the pin remains uncertain. She said both the store where the bread was purchased and the manufacturer of the product have been notified. As a precaution, bread has been removed from the store and the firm has removed some of its products from area store shelves, according to Mrs. Kelley. The mother had prepared a breakfast of eggs and toast for herself and her daughter Saturday. She said her daughter complained of an object being caught in her throat after she had eaten the eggs and toast.

Mrs. Kelley had advised her daughter to drink water and eat bread to help clear her throat. Mrs. Bitzer was later taken to the hospital after she began vomiting and said she was having difficulty breathing. The mother said she had moved to this area in August and did not bring any straight pins with her or keep them in her mobile home. She said she only uses needles to sew.

Mrs. Kelley wants others to be alert concerning possible foreign objects in their food. "The only thing I want to do is to warn people," she said this morning. "I don't want to go through this again."

MAN IN MASK TRIES TO MOLEST GIRL, 9

A 9-year-old Madison girl walking near the 100 block of the Greiner Homes about 9 p.m. Saturday was accosted by a man wearing a ski mask, she told police. The man grabbed her arm and tried to unbutton her clothing, but she pulled away and ran, she told officers. The assailant also fled from the scene when she pulled away, she said.

INDECENT EXPOSURE CASE

A man is being sought for indecently exposing himself to a junior high school student Thursday in a restaurant parking lot at Nameoki Road and Madison Avenue. The man, who fled in an auto, was in his early 30s, with brown hair of medium length. His car was an old station wagon with a damaged fender.

TAX RATES determine the amount of revenue apportionment of the funds ultimately distributed, schools usually receive half or more. The money eventually goes to the particular agencies that levied the taxes, but delays prevent local investment and often cause heavy borrowing through issuance of tax anticipation warrants.

As local-level officials see it, the ponderous county collection process and the often late mailing of bills make the taxing cycle "work against the taxing bodies instead of working for them."

County collectors say in response to this that townships often distribute early receipts on a non-proportional basis, complicating the task of figuring final distribution amounts.

care for at less intensive levels in non-institutional settings by providing basic services to these people in their homes," Percy said.

"I support a variety of proposals to expand home care services and avoid unnecessary and costly institutionalization whenever possible. I have co-sponsored Senate Bill 124, the 'Senior Citizens Independent Community Care Act.' This legislation would assist Medicare patients, age 65 and over, in avoiding placement in a nursing home by making various home health services reimbursable by Medicare. In addition, I support the concept of providing an income tax credit to help offset expenses incurred in the care of elderly family members at home," Percy concluded.

PONTON BEACH SR. CITIZEN MEETING

A meeting of the senior citizens residing in Pontoon Beach and Nameoki Township will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, April 17, at the Pontoon Beach Senior Citizen Center.

The courts say counties must stop delaying and also must pay back interest earned in past years. One interpretation is that reimbursement must take place even if a county did not profit from investment.

STILL UNCERTAIN, Hall said, is the question of whether bonding companies, the county government or officials are responsible for making up interest already expended.

County Treasurer Michael "Mike" Henkhaus has estimated that the county might have to increase its taxes per family by $50 or $100 to amass the money to pay to schools, cities and other agencies. Authority for the taxation would be a tort judgment.

He reports that $4.15 million interest was earned since Oct. 1, 1976, in this county, with $3.66 million of that amount potentially involved in the reimbursement.

Mrs. Mary Kane, County Board administrator, says that the reimbursement, if obtained by reducing other county governmental spending, would damage or destroy various departments' effectiveness.

William R. Haine, a Madison County Board member, chairman of the county's Transit District board, last week told the County Board's legislative committee that he has no objection to speeding up future tax distribution, but thinks the ruling should not have included retroactive payment of interest.

"IT'S OFFENSIVE that we have to go back to 1976. This is really going to sock it to taxpayers. We hope the legislature will show some equity and pass something to make local bodies lower their tax levies accordingly," Haine said.

One method might be amendment of a pending bill introduced by Sen. James "Pat" Phillip of Elmhurst, Illinois Senate Republican leader.

Although a negotiated settlement would be considered by taxing body representatives, many do not take kindly to the theory of reducing their existing levies by the amount of any reimbursement.

Some of the agencies are heavily in debt, part of which they blame on slow county forwarding of real estate taxes.

SOME TOWNSHIPS, including the Quad-City area, collect more than half of the property taxes and distribute them rapidly, with the county treasurer then serving as the collector after Sept. 1 each year.

In a number of years, the first of the two installments has been paid locally and the second installment at Edwardsville.

Other townships have no collectors. And still others elect collectors but do not provide a budget for their offices, leaving the collection task entirely up to the county.

HAINES SAYS that the county viewpoint by saying that "this purely artificial ruling is not going to help taxpayers at all. It is the taxpayers who lose when one taxing district sues another. This is an unreasonable order because there has been no showing of injury."

Officials present Thursday night thought they knew of considerable injury. A few wanted to "fight all the way" for funds due their treasuries, but by the end of a 90-minute discussion all voted to seek to negotiate with the county for a partial reimbursement.

Madison Council approves property negotiation

Madison City Council members approved an ordinance last week which will allow Mayor Mike Sasyk to negotiate for property that could be incorporated into the Alpine Village Shopping Center.

The property, located at Fourth Street and Madison Avenue, is the site of the former Clark Service Station. The city currently owns the property directly behind the lot.

ACCORDING TO City Comptroller Judy Donaldson, the city will be using Community Development funds to bid for the property. She said the city is not sure at this time what type of business would be located there.

Also approved at the meeting was a resolution which opposes a proposed state bill that would limit the issuance of industrial revenue bonds. The city of Madison has offered these types of bonds to new businesses in the hopes of promoting economic growth, said Sasyk.

He said this type of legislation may make it difficult for the whole Southwestern Illinois area to recover from the recession.

IN OTHER business, the city council approved a plan to clean up the city's alleyways and streets.

The plan was announced after a letter was read from Health Officer Vasil Gravelle, who said he has sighted rats at various places throughout the city. The letter said that rats were seen in areas where automobiles, lumber and other debris.

Gravelle proposed that the owners of these various yards be given 30 days to clean up their yards before they are ticketed.

IN AN EFFORT to help this project, the city street department will be offering free trash pickup of these items, if they banded correctly.

Some of the rules include placing all loose trash in the plastic or metal container that has been furnished by the city, adhering to a 200-pound weight limit for these plastic containers, tying together short branches or lumber, making them into bundles and calling the street department before placing large, bulky items into the alley.

Also at the meeting, the council accepted the retirement of Joe Gudac, custodian for the city hall, and the resignation of Harry Peterson, a police dispatcher. Peterson has accepted a job as a custodian with the Madison School District.

President Reagan backs task force fighting drug abuse

Lieutenant Governor George H. Ryan has received the support of President and Mrs. Reagan for the initiatives being pursued by the Lieutenant Governor's Task Force on Substance Abuse Prevention.

Ryan, task force chairman, recently returned from Washington, D.C., where he attended the spring meeting of the National Conference of Lieutenant Governors (NCLG).

Conference members met at the White House with President Reagan and Vice President Bush. The chief executive officer and the vice president were briefed on the activities of the Task Force and their proposed initiatives.

President Reagan expressed his support of the proposals and his appreciation for the involvement of lieutenant governors in promoting substance abuse prevention. He added that Mrs. Reagan, who is very active in prevention programs, would be especially interested in staying informed of the Task Force activities.

The Task Force is completing work on a comprehensive directory of various prevention programs in all 50 states. The directory will be used by all the nation's lieutenant governors to implement task force plans to strengthen interstate communication and promote the coordination of successful community-based prevention programs. Plans will be announced for a unique pilot program to be implemented in Illinois.

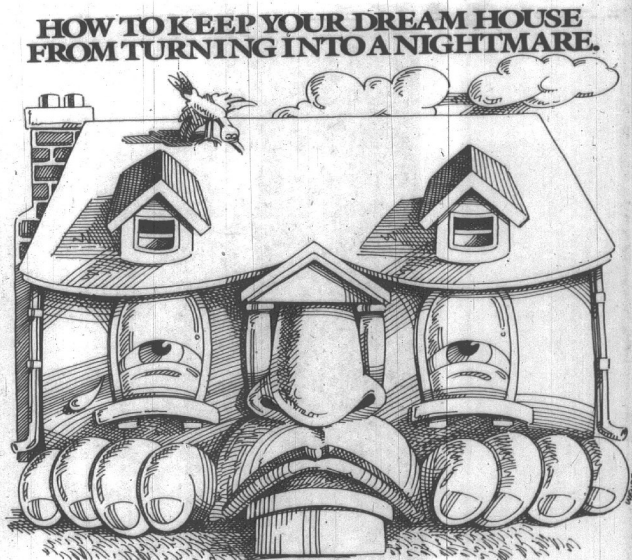

Members of the task force held several meetings with federal officials while in Washington. Dr. Carlton Turner, the president's special assistant for drug abuse policy; Dr. Edward Brandt, Health and Human Services assistant secretary for health, and Dr. William Pollin, director of the National Institute for Drug Abuse, all confirmed the administration's support and offered the services of their agencies.

Ryan and the task force also met with and received support from members of the House Select Committee on Narcotics Abuse and Control and the Senate Subcommittee on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse.

"The task force had a very productive few days in Washington," Ryan said in a report to the NCLG Executive Committee. "We opened up a new line of communications to the administration and Congress which will enable us to more effectively implement our programs."

National continues investment in GC Steel facility

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

Despite almost daily rumors that Granite City Steel has been sold or that major changes are in store, Ed Sambuchi, vice president and general manager of GCS, sees only growth ahead.

Sambuchi said observers should find comfort in the fact that National Intergroup, Inc. (NII), owner of Granite City Steel, "is still investing large sums of money in its steelmaking operations, including Granite City."

SEVERAL improvements are planned and already funded for Granite City Steel, Sambuchi said, including a new "bottom blow" system for the basic oxygen furnace, scheduled to be installed in August.

New technology for rolling operations in the continuous slab caster is being sought and it is hoped modern slab handling facilities can be constructed soon, he said in an exclusive interview with the Press-Record Monday.

Objections from residents of Caine Drive have been among the factors that have caused the company to put a "hold" on plans to construct a new slab handling building on the south side of the plant, he said. "We are trying to handle the citizens' complaints. Basically, we are a victim of our own success. We have improved our ability to make slabs at the caster and improved the heat set at the BOF (basic oxygen furnace), but the ability to get the slabs from the caster and blooming mill to the hot Sambuchi said.

rolling mill is still a bottleneck, Sambuchi said.

When plans for a slab handling facility near Caine Drive were first proposed, residents of that neighborhood objected that the operation might be noisy and dropped slabs could jar and possibly damage their homes.

An "overall analysis" of the slab handling facility project is underway he said.

A SHORTAGE of slab handling and sorting equipment — slab movers, cranes and other equipment — complicates the problem, he said. Due to differing orders for various types of steel, the slabs cannot be handled in the same order in which they are produced, which causes a logistical problem getting the right slabs to the beginning of the hot strip when needed. "It has hurt our productivity," Sambuchi said.

He noted the corporation currently is examining the best places to invest its capital to keep the mill modern. "We are trying to make sure we are going to invest our money to maximize our ability to cast slabs and provide the opportunity to roll and ship on a timely basis," he told the Press-Record.

Granite City also is being considered as the site for a new continuous slab caster. "It will be here or at Great Lakes (another division of National Intergroup). About 65 percent of the steel processed in Granite City is processed through the continuous slab caster and the remainder is processed through the blooming mill."

HIGH-TECHNOLOGY methods are being sought here to improve the quality of the steel produced here. So-called "clean steel" requires low sulphur and low or no induction of outside particles. This involves pouring from the bottom of a vessel where the top level remains constant so that the slag which floats on the surface does not become mixed with the molten steel when it is poured. Processing of the molten iron and steel with additional desulfurization chemicals also can help make "clean steel," which is very important to the manufacturers of cans and other manufacturers who roll steel to very thin tolerances.

New technology also is being sought to help control the shape and dimensions of the steel slabs and finished steel, Sambuchi said.

In addition to improvements in slab handling and steel quality, improvements are sought in "business continuity," which includes replacing worn-out equipment and meeting governmental requirements such as new cast house emission controls and other pollution control measures.

ON THE OTHER hand, Sambuchi said plans for construction of a third blast furnace or third coke oven battery are effectively "dead." No planning is going into these projects at this time, he said. "We're going to be a two-blast furnace steel plant," he stressed.

The two blast furnaces, which produce the iron from which steel is made, are working well, but "We face the potential of a full relining (new interior bricking) of one in the next two years and in the next three years, we will probably reline both. One furnace has a 'hot spot in the stack' now and various measures to correct the problem are being sought to keep it operating until it needs relined."

The new "bottom blow" equipment for the basic oxygen furnaces is being assembled at this time and will be installed when the first BOF vessel is ready for relining in August. The equipment will blow inert gases into the bottom of the vessel when it is filled with molten steel to stir it when an oxygen lance is introduced into the top of the vessel to blow impurities out of the steel. The inert gases help stir the mixture and help mix additives more uniformly for a higher quality steel and a "quieter blow" with oxygen. "It will give us better control over the end results," Sambuchi predicted.

IMPROVED cold roll mill operations also are being considered with new bending technology for more consistent rolls.

Commenting on reports from citizens that truck carrying Japanese coke have been unloading at the local steel plant, Sambuchi agreed, saying that the two coke ovens here are operating near full capacity and the remainder needed is being bought "on the open market of foreign and domestic sources."

Still, the amount being bought would not justify completing the third coke oven battery which was started about two years ago, because a third battery would make the local plant "coke rich" within a few years, which is not economical at a time when the industry is coke rich.

SAMBUCHI said he cannot comment on rumors that Granite City Steel and National Steel Group mills are for sale, saying that if there are any such negotiations going on, they are in Pittsburgh and he is not privy to those discussions. When U.S. Steel announced its intention to buy the National Steel Group, "no one was more surprised than I was," Sambuchi said.

Clean-up Campaign continues

Ray Edwards, general chairman of the community clean-up campaign that started Saturday, has announced the schedule for collection of trash bags and larger items such as stoves, refrigerators and lawnmowers in the area from Venice to the northern boundaries of Mitchell.

If a homeowner or apartment dweller has trash bags or articles too large to put into a bag, a special effort will be made during this week by individual cities and townships to collect the unwanted items.

RESIDENTS are being asked not to include tree limbs or shrub cuttings, petrol, chemicals, paints, toxic waste materials, tree stumps or vehicle bodies, as these will not be picked up in any of the participating areas.

Bags collected Saturday in Mitchell are to be placed at the edge of the roadway for pickup and residents may call the Chouteau Township highway commissioner's office, 931-6333, during weekdays of this week for collection of larger items.

There also is to be a large dumpster in the township's parking lot at 697 N. Thorngate Drive, Mitchell.

PONTIAC BEACH residents are being urged to leave all trash bags and larger articles at the edge of the street. Pickup service will be continued during the cleanup week, ending Saturday, April 21.

Granite City will follow its regular route days for weekly pickups and Madison homeowners are being asked to place trash bags in alleys, if that is the location normally used for collection. They are being reminded not to block passage in the alleys with bags or large discarded items.

People living in Venice are to follow the regular pickup schedules with containers in alleyways. Special pickups also will continue throughout the week.

Burglar gets cash, coins and jewelry

Items with an estimated value of $22,650 were stolen in a burglary, reported at 11 p.m. Saturday at the Reeves family home in the 2500 block of Boyle Avenue.

The resident, who was absent from the dwelling only about one hour, returned home to find a rear window was broken and a bedroom had been ransacked.

Immediately determined to be missing were a diamond ring, a white gold and diamond dinner ring, a gold bracelet, a gold ring with several diamonds and a pair of diamond earrings.

Also taken were silver coins, a pocket watch, a man's gold watch, a 25-year commemorative watch, and a quantity of cash. Additional items were being inventoried by the family.

At Tri-City Speedway Rains dampen Practice Day

GRANITE CITY — Despite drizzling rain which made for a messy as well as a hazardous track, about 20 determined drivers turned up for Tri-City Speedway's Open House-Practice Day Sunday afternoon.

Drivers sporting their midgets, modifieds, late models, sprints and even a motorcycle braved the rain to exercise their cars and engines Sunday.

Sunday's open house marked the unofficial opening of the speedway, now promoted by racing enthusiasts Bob Geaschel and Larry Quirin. Although the regular season is not slated to begin until April 28, there are two special shows this Friday and Saturday as the World of Outlaws come to the raceway.

IN ADDITION to numerous racing events which are expected to race this weekend, the World of Outlaws sprint car competition is expected to bring in a total of $41,650 in prize money during the two-day stint. As mentioned, Tri-City will begin its regular season the following weekend, April 28, and each Saturday night thereafter featuring modifieds, sportsmans and street stocks.

In addition to the regular shows, a special Mother's Day and Father's Day show will be run on Saturday, May 12, and Saturday, June 16, respectively.

ON WEDNESDAY, June 27, and Wednesday, Aug. 1, the speedway will feature the Busch Late Models Specials, and on Tuesday, July 3, there will be a special open competition modified on the half mile track preceded by A.M.A. motorcycle races on May 18.

Ticket fees for all the regular night racing will be $4.50 for adults and $1 for children. This weekend for the World of Outlaws, however, ticket prices are $12 for adults and $5 for children six through 12 years.

Tri-City Speedway is located a half mile south of Interstate 270 on highway 203.

PRACTICE DAY. Despite a persistent, drizzling rain, about 20 drivers turned up at Tri-City Speedway Sunday afternoon for the Open House-Practice Day, a chance for drivers to test their engines before the racing season at the speedway officially opens in two weeks.

Warrior girls finish sixth in Annie Invitational

Brandt First In Discus

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

CENTRALIA — Participants in the Fifth Annual Annie Invitational held here Saturday found the track meet to be a draining experience. Not only did many of the girls face physical exhaustion after the four-hour meet, but all found themselves wringing their soaked clothes caused by a steady drizzle during the 4-hour meet.

Granite City finished sixth out of nine teams, winding up with 24 points. Charleston easily ran away with the meet, capturing 65 points. Harrisburg finished a distant second with 40 points, followed by Mount Vernon with 35, Carbondale with 30 and Centralia with 28.

DEBBIE BRANDT claimed Granite City's sole first-place finish in the field event, placing tops in the discus with a throw of 105-feet 7-inches. Her championship throw gave the Warriors six team points.

Head coach Pete Robinson said Brandt's victory was no surprise because the junior went to the state finals last year in the discus. She finished 14th overall.

"But you never want to take anything for granted in the field events," said Robinson. "They're all Wiser, incidentally, also beat the 1983 record with her fifth-place finish of 11:46.2.

Despite the heaviest rainfall occurring the 440-yard dash, Laura Black of Charleston squeaked past the 1:02.74 record with a time of 1:02.4. Lisa Wiser finished fourth with a 1:05.1 time.

Charleston also chalked up another record in the last event of the day, the mile relay, with a time of 4:17.9. Centralia had held the record with a 4:20.2 time recorded in 1980.

Also scoring points for Granite City was Traci Rose, who finished fourth in the 220-yard dash with a time of 28.9.

In the team events, Granite City finished third in the 880-yard medley relay at 2:01.8, fourth in the 440-yard relay at 54.9, and fifth in the 880-yard relay with a 1:57.8 time.

The best individual performance of the day came from Cindy Shelton of Harrisburg, who finished first in the 100-yard dash, 110-yard low hurdles, 220-yard dash and the 220-yard low hurdles. Her four first-place finishes accounted for 24 of Harrisburg's 40 points.

Graves Sets New Records

Warrior high jumpers brilliant

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Competition was stiff at a triangular meet Friday when Granite City hosted Centralia and Belleville West, but the fiercest rivalry was between the Granite City team members themselves at the high jump event.

Nearing the end of the meet, Scott Cant, Paul Smith and Eric Graves all cleared 6-feet 6-inches, half an inch above the 6-feet 5½-inch school record set at the start of the season.

At 6-feet 8-inches on Friday, Graves jumped over the bar on his first attempt. Cant, the Warriors' starting center on the basketball team, bowed out after three attempts. But Smith surprised the onlookers by clearing 6-feet 8-inches on his second jump to tie the school record.

WITH THE pressure on him, Graves cleared 6-feet 10-inches on his first attempt, putting him as the sole holder of a new school record.

The first, second and third place finishes gave Granite City nine team points, just short of lifting the Warriors to a victory. Centralia captured first with 80 points, followed by Granite City with 71 and Belleville West with 34.

The combined ability of Graves, Smith and Cant is among the best in the state in the field event. The competition between the three seems to be improving their performances, as all three jumpers cleared their highest jumps this season on Friday.

SUNSHINE and warm weather proved to be a welcome change for the track teams in the triangular meet, although strong winds hampered runners as usual during this blustery spring.

Distance running proved again to be Granite City's stronghold, as the Warriors took first in the 1600-meter relay. Jim Robertson finished first in the 3200-meter run and Darren Bernals, claimed first in the 800-meter run.

Graves, as on March 28, found that school records come in pairs. In addition to breaking the high jump record, the junior added an extra 8½ inches to the school's long jump record Friday, finishing first with a 43-feet 4½-inch jump. Graves had broken the record March 28 with a 42-feet 8-inch jump.

GRAVES nabbed first in the long jump and ran the third leg of the winning 1600-meter relay team. In the running event, the Leavenworth, Kan., transfer trailed throughout the lap before pouring on the steam around the final curve and passing his competitor.

"We're hoping the running will strengthen Eric's legs and improve his jumping," said head coach Pete Robinson. "It seems to be working so far."

High jumper Cant also helped out his team with a first-place finish in the 110-meter low hurdles and a third-place finish in the 400-meter dash.

CENTRALIA, meanwhile, garnered

pretty technical and any little thing can throw things off. Brandt did a good job."

FOLLOWING Brandt in scoring were twins Lora and Lisa Wiser of Granite City. Lora Wiser finished fourth in the 440-yard dash, fifth in the long jump and anchored the team's third-place 880-yard medley relay, while Lisa Wiser finished fifth in the two-mile run and one-mile run.

Coming off a week-long layoff ordered by a doctor due to problems with her knees, Lisa Wiser was not in top physical shape but still came out to beat the majority of the field. Robinson said Wiser had previously defeated the meet's top four competitors in the 2-mile run during the cross country season. Wiser finished 16th in the state cross country finals.

"ONE'S been having troubles with her knees, although the doctors don't believe it's caused by her running," said Robinson. "I asked her if she was experiencing any problems and she said no, except for not being in good shape."

Loretta Cox helped Granite City by recording a third place finish in the high jump with a 4-feet 8-inch mark. The Warriors also received a lift from Heather Crane, who finished fourth in the long jump with a 15-foot 3½-inch jump. Lisa Walker of Harrisburg, who finished first with a 16-foot 11-inch jump, broke the track meet record 16-foot 10½-inch set in 1982.

THREE other track meet records were broken during the rainy contest. Michelle Jackson of Charleston set a record in the mile with a time of 11:28.5, smashing the previous record of 11:52.78 set last year by Terry Dill of Belleville West. Lora

Washington washes out Warrior diamondmen

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER

Sports Editor of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Granite City High School varsity baseball coach Bob Stegmeyer had few harsh words for his team Saturday after dropping their eighth and ninth games of the season to Washington, 15-4 and 12-1.

Instead he took a different approach. One that seemed out of character for a coach whose team is now 2-4 on the season.

He discussed the losses in such a manner that even drew a few chuckles from a distraught baseball team.

"I told them I was going to be more positive and less critical in the future. I guess I've been too negative," Stegmeyer said assessing himself.

"I've been coaching and they haven't been responding to what I'm doing and that's very frustrating. I guess I need to try something different," he said.

"It's embarrassing for me because it reflects on my coaching. I'm apparently not doing a good job because we are not correcting our mistakes and getting better performances from our kids," Stegmeyer said.

With that assessment, Stegmeyer addressed his athletes after the game.

"I apologized to the kids after the game. I've been on some of these kids unmercifully, and I told them I still like them, they're good kids."

"I told them I probably overestimated some of their abilities as baseball players, expected too much from them," Stegmeyer said.

"And, generally, I tried to relax them a little bit. I told them I was going to be positive, joke with them a little bit. Say things like 'you looked a lot better making that error' and 'you looked a lot better striking out,'" Stegmeyer said jokingly.

Although the Warriors enjoyed Stegmeyer's post-game speech, the same can't be said of the five hours of baseball which preceded it.

Losing their fifth and sixth ball games at home, the Warriors committed 10 errors during the double-header which began at noon. Under drizzling, raining conditions, errors seemed inevitable. But somehow, the Panthers exited both games without committing a miscue.

IN ADDITION to the Panthers' defensive prowess, they were equally as effective on offense, picking up 12 hits in each of the first and second games. The Warriors, meanwhile, managed five hits in the first game and just one the first game.

The offensive highlight of the afternoon for the Warriors was a three-run homer over the left field fence by junior Scott Grote in the first game. Grote's smash, his first home run in high school, scored the Warriors' second, third and fourth runs of the game. Coming in the third inning, it was also the Warriors' final tally of the game.

THE FIRST game Granite City started and ended in disaster for the Warriors. After retiring the first two batters in the top of the first inning, the Warriors committed two costly errors which eventually led to a four-hit eight-run inning for the Panthers.

The Warriors managed a comeback, of sorts, in the second and third innings, when they cut the Panthers' lead to four, 8-4, on Grote's homer.

Through the middle innings, the Panthers were virtually unheard of. Reliever Allen Zentgraf, who entered the game in the second inning for starter Tim Gray, silenced the Panther bats through the fifth inning and allowed just two hits.

OUT in the sixth and fateful inning, Washington went to work again. Tagging second reliever Darin Spalding for six hits and seven runs, the Panthers exploded in the sixth inning. The result was a shortened, six-inning contest.

Tim Gray was tagged for the loss while Washington's Greg Herron, who went four full innings and gave up four hits, was credited for the win. It was Herman's first win of the season.

In the second game, the Panthers used a more balanced scoring attack to defeat the Warriors. Scoring in every inning, Washington slammed four Warrior pitchers on its way to victory.

STARTER Dan Whitsett, ailing from a pulled muscle in his lower back, exited the game following the first inning after allowing one run.

The Warriors picked up their only run of the game in their half of the first as Pat Cathey slapped a one-out sacrifice fly to left field to score Gerry Booker who reached on a single.

In the second inning, the Panthers began their roll to victory when Chad Bailey drove a single to left field off Warrior reliever Tom Warfield.

Aided by two costly walks by Warfield, who inadvertently switched the ball from his bare hand to his glove hand while standing on the rubber, the Panthers picked up two in the second inning before Cal Fuller to grounded out to third.

FACING a dwindling pitching staff, Stegmeyer selected to throw right fielder Booker for two innings before sending in Tim Gray in the fifth and final inning.

Booker, who entered the game in the third after Warfield allowed the Panthers' Herman to slap a two-run homer, struck out the second batter he faced. The first batter, who reached on a walk, was retired on a fielder's choice at second base.

In the fourth inning, Washington's Rob Buysse, Ted Moore and Fuller each reached safely on two hits and an error and were then scored in a similar manner.

Fuller scored Buysse with a slap to right field and Chip Hollingsworth batted in Moore who reached on a double. The Panther's third run of the inning scored when a ball eluded Shane Cole in center field.

In the fifth inning the Panthers used the long ball to score three of their four runs. With Paul Holthe and Fuller on, Hollingsworth slapped a three-run homer over the 360 mark in center field.

The Panthers picked up their final run of the afternoon when Herman singled in Jim Divinye who doubled in center field.

Hodges, who went the distance for the Panthers, was the winning pitcher while Warfield was tagged for the loss.

Friday afternoon, in a Gateway East Conference game in Edwardsville at LeClaire Field, despite outpitching the Tigers 9-7, the Warrior lost their seventh game of the season 9-7.

A grand slam in the fifth inning by Edwardsville's Mark Blythe proved to be the determining factor in the game.

Weather permitting, the Warriors will get another shot at the Tigers as they host their GEC rival this afternoon at Varsity Field. Action begins at 4 p.m. The Tigers, incidentally, are riding a 7-3 record.

DREARY DAY. Members of Granite City High School's varsity baseball team didn't have reason to celebrate Saturday afternoon during a double-header with the Washington Panthers. The Peoria-area team swept the twinbill from the Warriors 15-4 and 12-1. The losses drop the Warriors' record to 2-9 on the season.

more unorthodox manner, without the benefit of a hit.

Three walks and three wild pitches along with an error and a sacrifice fly increased the Warrior lead to 6-0.

ERRORS came around to haunt the Warriors in the second inning. After retiring the first batter of the inning, Staggis appeared to have struck out the second hitter, pitcher Stacy Case. But a dropped third strike by the Warrior catcher allowed the runner to advance to first. A stolen base and another Warrior error allowed brought Case around to score.

Walks again plagued the Lutheran North starter in the third. Three walks combined with a single by Lisa Lilley accounted for all the Warrior scoring in the inning.

THE WARRIORS managed to increase their lead to 11-1 going into the bottom of the sixth. Poor weather conditions began to play a big part in the game as a wet and muddy infield caused several Warrior errors. The Crusaders took advantage of the situation to score four runs on no hits making the score 11-5.

Lutheran North managed one more run in the seventh, but it wasn't enough as the Warriors held on to win.

Despite the late inning problems, Coach Davis was pleased with his team's overall performance especially on defense.

"WE HAD some problems due to the weather in the sixth and seventh. The conditions were pretty vicious, but our defense is pretty sound," said Davis.

Strong hitting, something that has been a problem for the Warriors in the past, also played a key role in the team's first win.

"This pitcher was not a dominating force like some of the other pitchers we've seen, but our hitters have really been coming through," stated Davis.

"Kim Muehlh is a pleasant surprise. She's added a punch to our lineup, and Lisa Lilley is the best hitter I've seen so far this year and we've played some tough teams."

DAVIS also felt the win would have a great psychological effect on his team.

"I'm really pleased with the win.

When you lose you get yourself into a rut and you start thinking you can't win. Our girls needed this victory," said Davis.

"We think anyone who takes us lightly will have their hands full."

The Warriors showed proof of that last Thursday when they met Gateway East Conference rival Cahokia. The Warriors played the Comanches close for the first four innings, but late inning control problems by Warrior pitchers led to six walks and eight fifth inning runs.

"The score was no indication of the game," said Coach Davis. "Looking at the final score the game looks like a blowout, but it wasn't. Our girls played well."

Even though the final score was 11-1, I think they might have gained a little respect for Granite City."

Trojans lose to Knights
TRIAD — Madison High School's baseball team took it on the chin again Friday as it dropped a 20-10, six-inning contest to Triad.

The Trojans had "one good inning," said Coach Ron Crader referring to the Trojans' one-run first. But then things fell apart in the second as Triad exploded for nine runs to Jakub's lead.

Plagued by a total of eight errors, the Trojans were unable to catch the Knights and the game was eventually called in the sixth inning by virtue of the 10-run rule.

"Basically, there was a lot of hitting, by both teams, and a lot of mistakes. We made most of the mistakes, though," Crader said.

The day before, the Trojans dropped another game, their third of the season, to Livingston 8-2.

Sponsored By MAC Bandits Tourney to benefit Tammy Beckham

A Granite City youth soccer team is sponsoring a benefit indoor soccer tournament next month to raise money for a St. Louis girl who needs a liver transplant operation.

The MAC Bandits, a team comprised of 15 year olds, will sponsor a 16-team indoor soccer tournament May 12 and 13 at Soccer for Fun to benefit St. Louisan Tammy Beckham, a 16-year-old girl who needs a liver transplant.

Miss Beckham's plight became known throughout the Midwest recently when the Missouri Senate voted to give the child $200,000 for the liver transplant, but withdrew its offer when some legislators said the move might violate the state constitution's ban on appropriations to specific people.

MISS BECKHAM suffers from chronic, active sclerosis, a disease that causes the liver to harden and decay. Specialists estimate that Miss Hardin will live five years without the life-saving liver transplant.

Enter the MAC Bandits, Ruth Richardson and June Hartwick.

Although the idea of the benefit tournament for Tammy Beckham is relatively new, her plight is not. Tammy Beckham's kidney disease is something that Mrs. Hartwick has known for some time.

Until recently Mrs. Hartwick's father-in-law, Ben Hartwick, has been suffering with an ailing kidney for some. Last week, doctors removed the ailing kidney and according to the Hartwicks, the elder Hartwick is recovering just fine.

It was that familiarity with her father-in-law's ailing kidney which prompted June Hartwick and in turn the MAC Bandits to sponsor a tournament for Tammy Beckham.

Openings in the tournament are available for teams 14 years and under, 12 years and under and 10 years and under. Although it is billed as a 16-team tourney, Mrs. Richardson said as many as 20 teams may register to compete.

There is a $65 fee per team to compete in the tournament, $30 of which must be turned in by April 25 to guarantee participation. The $65 fee, incidentally, guarantees each team at least two games.

Persons wishing to register a team for the tournament should contact either Ruth Richardson at 931-4543, June Hartwick at 797-0387, or Fred Johnston at Soccer for Fun, 797-0619.

For those persons who do not wish to register a team for the tournament, but still wish to contribute to Tammy Beckham's cause may do so by mailing their contribution to the Tammy Beckham Benefit Fund, in care of the Colonial Bank, 2400 Pontoon Road, Granite City, Illinois, 62040.

Mrs. Richardson is also seeking assistance from Granite City merchants in the form of prizes for the tournament. Merchants wishing to contribute may also contact any of the above telephone numbers.

For Soccer Crane committed to Western Ill.

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Nathan Crane, a three-year member of Granite City South's soccer team and team captain last year on Granite City High's soccer team, has made a verbal commitment to play at Western Illinois University in Macomb.

Crane, a midfielder for the Warriors the past few years, made the verbal commitment recently when talking with WIU coach John MacKenzie. According to MacKenzie, Crane will make it official later this month or early in May when he's expected to sign with the Leathernecks.

Although Crane was a team leader for the 1983 Warrior squad and was selected to both regional and sectional teams, he received perhaps most recognition in 1982 — his junior year — when he scored two goals in the state championship game against New Trier. The Warriors won that game and their sixth state championship in the then 11-year tournament.

THE FOLLOWING year, Crane and the Warriors were again in the state tournament. This time, however, the Warriors were not as fortunate. They lost their preliminary round game to Glenbrook North, the eventual winner of the tournament.

It was later learned that Crane, who scored 10 goals last year for the Warriors, missed All-State status by a single vote.

"I was surprised that Nate was not on the (All-State) team," said Warrior coach Gene Baker. "I definitely thought he deserved it. I thought they'd (the voting coaches) be more representing of downstate soccer."

CRANE's not being selected to the All-State team in 1983 may have had something to do with his troubled back, an injury which left him sidelined for part of last season.

"Despite his severe back trouble, Nate had a good year for us," Baker said. "He has a lot more speed than meets the eye and he's a flexible player. He'll play any position you ask him."

"Nathan's been a pleasure for me to coach. He's very coachable and I think he has the potential to be a fine collegiate soccer player," Baker concluded.

For Crane, who plans to major in business, adjusting to the campus of Western Illinois University shouldn't be too difficult. To assist him in the transition he'll have the help of sophomores and former teammates Barry Grote, John Mendez and Tony Segobiano.

DURING Friday's interview, Crane downplayed his former teammates as a reason for his decision to attend Western, but he did say it would be fun to compete with them again.

"No, I don't think they had much to do with my decision to attend Western," Crane said. "I didn't just want to be another soccer player from Granite City there. The reason I decided on Western was because they have a good business school and of the other places I had offers from it's closest to home."

"It'll be easier for me to get back and forth, plus this way my mom and dad can see more of my games," Crane said.

Crane's other offers came from the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, the University of Alabama at Huntsville and Rockhurst College in Kansas City.

For his soccer commitment to the Leathernecks, Crane's partial scholarship consists of a tuition waiver.

Crane, 18, is the son of Gary and Carol Crane of Granite City.

In Baseball Cougars split with EIU Panthers

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball team split a double-header here Sunday afternoon with the Eastern Illinois University Panthers under a rainy sky, winning the opening game, 4-2, and losing the second, 1-0.

It was a typical donkeybrook between these two bitter foes. Eastern maintained its two-victory edge over the Cougars as the series now stands at 15 and 17 in favor of the visitors from Charleston.

Jackie Baugher, the Cougars'

third baseman-shortstop and relief hurler, again set a new double record for SIUE in the leadoff game as his two-bagger broke a 2-2 tie in the sixth frame to give Coach Bo Collins' charges their first lead of the game. It was Baugher's 34th double, a career high for all SIUE batters. Of course, every time he doubles he'll set a new record.

However, it was Brian Kabbes, SIUE's designated hitter, who drew in the final run of the first game for the Cougars and added an insurance run.

Pete Delkus, making his third start, was the winning pitcher for the Cougars in the first contest. Delkus, who pitched the Collinsville Kahoks to runnersup status in the Illinois high school-championship last year, gave up six hits, two of which were scratch infield fukes.

The fielding gem of the leadoff game was made by Charles Hodges when he ran back and turned at the right instant to rob Monty Aldridge of a safety which could have tied the game up, 4-4, since a runner was on.

In the second game, the Cougars again fell behind 4-1 after Eastern had batted in six frames. It was Scott Haber's triple in sixth frame which tied it up for SIUE, 4-4.

SIUE is now 15-10 for the season, while Eastern is 11-6.

This afternoon, the Cougars travel to Greenville College for a single game. Wednesday, it'll be a pair against Southeast Missouri State University at Cape. Then, Thursday at noon they'll make up a rained out game with the University of Missouri at St. Louis and at 3 p.m. They'll drop down to Clayton to play against the Bears of Washington University. The Cougars will then close out the week with a pair next Saturday when Southwest Missouri State comes to Cougar Field for a twinbill.

Task force discusses DUI laws

By JIM WOODCOCK

Illinois statistics for 1983 show that arrests in Madison County for drunken driving increased 136 percent from figures recorded two years earlier. In St. Clair County, the rate of increase was even more dramatic—381 percent.

A tougher law on drunken driving, or DUI (Driving Under the Influence), was enacted by the state in 1982. The result is an 81 percent increase in DUI arrests, and another 81 percent gain in convictions.

EVEN SO, drinking drivers were involved in vehicle accidents during 1983 that killed nearly 800 persons in Illinois. Nationally, almost 25,000 persons lost their lives in the same fashion.

Figures like these are the reason that an Illinois DUI task force was established. The group was at the Collinsville Hilton Inn last week to listen to views about drunken driving and what should be done to combat it.

The task force, established late last year, is headed by Secretary of State Jim Edgar and includes representatives from the Illinois Department of Transportation, National Safety Council, legislators, and health and law enforcement officials.

COLLINSVILLE was the third stop on a six-city tour for the task force, which will head the advice it receives and decide later what other steps are available to decrease the risk of the drunken driver.

"We'll make all of this available to the General Assembly before witnesses testified."

Those who spoke to the task force Monday included St. Clair County's State's Attorney John Baricevic and Sheriff Mearl Justus; Fred Painter, regional manager of state driver's license facilities and executive secretary of the Illinois Retail Liquor Association; and Gary Sullivan and Bob Holcamp, principal and student council president at Springfield Southeast High School, respectively.

STATE FIGURES for 1982-83 indicate that St. Clair County nearly had a 100 percent conviction rate for DUI dispositions turned in to the Secretary of State's office during that time.

However, Baricevic complained that many cases drag on for weeks because his staff has difficulty obtaining the driver's history from the Secretary of State's office.

Perhaps Mr. Edgar's office needs more money," he said, adding that he thought it was perhaps a shortcoming in administration.

Also, Baricevic noted that his staff often must prosecute without personnel from the Illinois Department of Public Health lab in Chicago to testify to the blood alcohol content in a defendant.

Baricevic suggested allowing personnel at Memorial Hospital to conduct blood tests and testify at trials, a measure which would require legislation.

JUSTUS SAID he had no qualms about Illinois' current DUI laws and procedures. He said it is very important, however, to begin educating children on the hazards of drunken driving.

"Any time in a society where 95 percent of the people drive and 80 percent drink, all during a multi-million dollar advertising campaign, you'll have a major problem with drunken driving," Justus said. "It's time to start promoting realistic programs. Laws alone are not the answer to DUIs. We'll be able to solve it when we become willing to deal with all facets of this deeply complicated tragedy."

PAINTER SUGGESTED that restrictions should be placed on gasoline stations on quick shops that sell liquor. "That will tend to slow down the drinking and driving at the same time," he said.

Painter said he is also in favor of issuing restricted drivers licenses to DUI offenders if no accident or fatality occurred and if the offender submitted to a breath test, showed financial responsibility, and had no history of being a careless or imprudent driver.

Painter said he strongly supports convicting DUI offenders who threaten society. "However, we steadfastly believe the majority of other DUI-charged drivers in this state should be given a chance to retain their driving privilege," he said.

SULLIVAN SAID he wants the task force to support groups such as SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) and make recommendations to the state board of education for new programs.

"In the three years of being a principal, I've been to the funeral of a high school student each year because of drunk driving. I don't want to go to any more," Sullivan said. "Unfortunately, I'll probably have to."

Holcamp agreed that educational programs on drinking are needed, perhaps as early as sixth grade. "A couple of days in driver's ed doesn't do it," Holcamp said. "I don't even remember it."

Department status for jobless benefits

A state executive order will reorganize functions within the Department of Labor to create a separate Cabinet-level Department of Employment Security.

Duties of the Bureau of Employment Security, now under jurisdiction of the Department of Labor, will be handled by the new department. The reorganization will take effect July 1 unless the legislature disapproves it. Conforming legislation will be introduced.

"It is my opinion that the state will be better served by a department, the sole purpose of which is to administer the system of unemployment insurance and programs related to it," Gov. James R. Thompson said.

"The administration of the system is an extremely complex function which is unique and independent from other functions of the Department of Labor. Second, the system is unique and independent with respect to its funding."

"It is financed exclusively with federal funds earmarked specifically for such administration, while the other functions of the Department of Labor are financed with state funds."

The system is administered under the regulation of the U.S. Department of Labor.

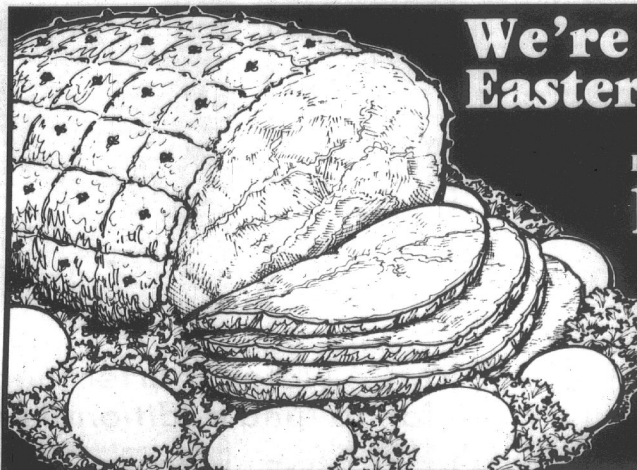

"Third, it is a massive operation. In terms of volume of business transacted, number of people employed, and total dollars for which it is responsible, the current Bureau of Employment Security is comparable to any of the largest state agencies."

The bureau's 4,650 employees administered a $2.2 billion benefit program in calendar 1983, issuing checks for 9.7 million weeks of compensation.

Lifetime dream is retirement reality

"Fulfillment Of Your Lifetime Dreams After Retirement," was the subject of Betty Taylor as she spoke to the Five Star Club of Granite City Trust and Savings Bank.

As a young person most people have a desire to do a particular thing, but for various reasons, they assume a career that offers financial security. While in high school she dreamed of owning a Tea Room. The idea remained in the back of her mind all through a long teaching career. Dreams do not need to be retired at 45. Retirement can nourish long held dreams to fulfillment and add new vitality to life's later years, the speaker said. Mrs. Taylor found retirement to be a perfect environment for her 50 year old dream of a tea room and inn. Mrs. Taylor recalled the teachers, friends and family whose encouragement found reality, when she and her husband opened the Calico Cupboard, in Hermann, Mo., in 1977, on the 100th anniversary of the birth of Mark Twain.

Now at 72, she hosts Der Klingerbau Inn, a bed and breakfast service in Hermann. Mrs. Taylor emphasized the importance of seniors keeping at ease with young people, who are eager to share your experience, your ideas and your talents.

The Taylors' friendship with the Paul Warner family led to the founding of River Country Bed and Breakfast, a lodging reservation service, she added.

The monthly meeting was held at the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. Several Easter Bunnies were given as attendance prizes. Emylee Alford, club coordinator, served refreshments to 50 members. Anyone wishing to attend the ball game April 25 may get tickets that are still available by calling Mrs. Alford at 876-1212.

Citizen involvement

—A DOWNTOWN REDEVELOPMENT plan will be outlined at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 17, at the Granite City Council meeting to be conducted at the Granite City Township Building, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue. The flexible plan tentatively calls for a motel and shopping plaza to be located along Grand Avenue, between 6th and 21st streets, and office and housing developments in other downtown areas. The Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the project. Residents and members of the business community are being encouraged to attend the meeting and let the council know what they think about the proposal.

—THE METRO EAST SANITARY District will conduct a tax levy public hearing at 9 a.m. Wednesday, April 18, at its office at 1801 Madison Ave. According to Walter Greathouse, district director, the current tax rate of 32 cents for every $100 of assessed property value will remain the same, even though the district is proposing a 32.28 percent tax levy rise from $1.5 million to $2 million. Greathouse said the rise, if it is collected, would come from increased assessed valuation of the district, rather than a change in the rate. The district is not, however, expecting the valuation to rise. It must give advance notice in order to collect the higher levy if the value does go up.
